

Take comfort in the detail...

It goes without saying that every G Plan sofa provides you with the finest British craftsmanship, quality materials and the ultimate in comfort, but to help you with all the additional details you should consider, we've created a quick sofa-buying checklist. Why not use the G Plan website to locate your nearest stockist, and take the list in store? We hope you find it useful.

Have you considered...

Room dimensions?

It's worth making a note of some key measurements of your room. Will your new sofa fit the available space? Remember to leave enough space so you can still move around your room easily.

Room length	<input type="text"/>
Room width	<input type="text"/>
Max. sofa width	<input type="text"/>
Max. chair width	<input type="text"/>
Room to recline chair/sofa	<input type="text"/>
Space for a footstool	<input type="text"/>
What access do you have to your room?
Corridor width	<input type="text"/>
French windows/patio doors available?	<input type="text"/>
Front door width	<input type="text"/>
Any other access constraints?	<input type="text"/>

Colour scheme?

Are you buying your sofa to make a statement? Will the decor of the room follow your sofa choice, or does your new sofa need to fit with your existing carpet, curtains or decor?

The seating you need?

Consider how your sofa will fit in your room, and how it will complement the furniture you already own. What combination are you looking for?
